CAMPUS EVENTS

HART HOUSE WEDNESDAY NIGHT - DANCING, SWIMMING, MOVIES, BRIDGE - What is a Hart House Wednesday Night? Well, this Wednesday, and every other Wednesday night throughout the Term, Hart House will be open for informal evenings, where you can dance in the Debates Room, drop into the Music Room for a relaxing game of bridge or cards, view excellent films in the room just across the hall, visit the Record Rooms or go down to the pool for a dip. The evening begins at 9:00, and all summer students and staff (with their husbands or wives) are invited. The swimming ends at 10:30, and the rest at midnight.

DANCING ANYONE - Another feature of our Wednesday Night is that Mr. & Mrs. G. Lewis will be on hand to give dancing lessons to those interested. The lessons are in the latest dancing styles, and methods are stressed, so that you may teach these steps to others. The fee is $3.00 for three lessons. The group will be formed this Wednesday night at 9:30 in the Debates Room.

INTERVIEW WITH LINUS PAULING (Tuesday) - Tomorrow, (Tuesday), at 1:00 p.m. in the East Common Room of Hart House, a stimulating film interview with this well-known and outspoken scientist will be presented. A stimulating hour with provocative glimpses of what the future may have in store if man can save himself from his own folly.

MARCUS LONG INTERVIEWS LISTER SINCLAIR - Lister Sinclair, the well-known writer and commentator will be on campus this Thursday for a discussion-interview with Prof. Marcus Long. Come to the Hart House quadrangle at 12:00 for this interesting hour. You may bring your lunch, if you wish, and if you've got a class to 12:30, drop in when you finish.

ENGINEERING TOUR - A tour of the facilities of the Civil and Mechanical Engineering Buildings, with demonstrations of the equipment is being planned for next Tuesday, July 18 at 2:00 p.m. There are lists posted in the Information Centre and at O.C.E. if you are interested in coming on this interesting and informative visit.

O.C.E. SOCIAL ACTIVITY CARDS - All O.C.E. students interested in taking part in campus activities must have an O.C.E. Social Activity Card, which will admit you to all parties, movies, etc, and the athletic facilities at the Benson Building or at Hart House. These cards are available from Mrs. Deane in the Information Centre, without charge. They are not available at the O.C.E. office.
